Attached is a different letter which I have prepared to send to the Bureau regarding the Hosty omission from the FBI report. As you know, I share everyone's concern that this is a matter of great importance. However, I do not share the conclusion expressed by some at our recent staff meeting that our response to this matter be delayed for some vague tactical or otherwise unspecified reason. I think that sufficient time has passed already. I think that this letter puts the matter in proper context, expresses appreciation for the various materials submitted by the Bureau to this Commission to assist us in considering this problem and then brings to the Bureau's attention this important matter and asks for a full explanation. I do not think that this letter precludes the Commission in any way from approaching the FBI further on this matter if the explanation received from them is inadequate. I do not think that this letter precludes the Commission in any way from approaching the FBI further on this matter if the explanation received from them is inadequate. I do not think this precludes our taking the testimony of any FBI agent we believe to have relevant information on the allegation. In short, once it is decided that the matter should be brought to the Bureau's attention (and I am aware of no disagreement on this issue) then I think that the matter should be handled at this time with a letter similar to the attached one which I have prepared for your signature.
